District Profile

El Tejon Union School District was formed by the union of the Lebec and Pershing school districts in 1951. In its first year as a consolidated school district, the average daily attendance was 201. By its tenth year, in 1961 the District had grown to an average daily attendance of 370. Today the District maintains three schools, Frazier Park School, the El Tejon School, and Frazier Mountain High School. The average daily attendance is currently 1425 students. The District services students in kindergarten through high school.

El Tejon Unified School District is located in the Tehachapi Mountains in Kern County, California (between Bakersfield and Los Angeles) and takes in a wide area: Lebec, Frazier Park, Lake of the Woods, Lockwood Valley, Pinon Pines, Cuddy Valley, and Pine Mountain Club. It can be accessed by Interstate 5, along the famous "Grapevine" section. The elevation ranges from 3500 feet to 6000 feet. The area attracts many tourists during the winter season for cross-country skiing and other winter activities.
