District Profile

The growing community of Delhi is in the heart of the San Joaquin Valley on Highway 99. Delhi is 15 minutes north of the University of California at Merced campus and 10 minutes south of California State University - Stanislaus, and less than 60 minutes from the Bay Area.

Delhi Unified School District currently serves 2,700 students at six (6) sites. We have three elementary schools, El Capitan Elementary, Schendel Elementary, and Harmony Elementary. Delhi Middle School and Delhi High School serves grades 7-12 at the Delhi Educational Park which opened in 1999. Shattuck Educational Park offers students Continuation and Independent studies as well as adult education programs. Merced Junior College offers courses on our High School campus that are open concurrently to both high school students and the community. The McCandless Library at the Delhi Educational Park serves as both the School Library, and the Community Library in Delhi.

School year 2006 marks the opening of the Delhi Preschool to serve Delhi 4-year old students. With the Preschool, the Delhi Unified School District can serve the community's educational needs from preschool through college.
