

San Lorenzo Valley Unified
325 Marion Ave.
Ben Lomond, CA, 95005
831-336-5194
Web Site: <http://www.slv.k12.ca.us/index.htm>

2 Elementary Schools
1 Middle School
1 High School
1 Continuation School
1 Community Day School
K-12 Enrollment 3,516

Profile

San Lorenzo Valley Unified School District is nestled in the beautiful redwoods of the Santa Cruz Mountains above the blue expanse of the Monterey Bay Marine Sanctuary. The area is served by the district is one of forested mountains adjacent to the San Lorenzo River which meanders through our valley. The District extends 17 miles north of Santa Cruz, south of Los Gatos, east of Bonny Doon and west of Scotts Valley. The schools of the San Lorenzo Valley Unified School District serve as focal points of the communities along the river. The three main, but small, towns of Felton, Ben Lomond and Boulder Creek consist of small business areas surrounded by residential areas.

Students attend their local elementary school through fifth grade at either San Lorenzo Valley Elementary or Boulder Creek Elementary. Secondary years are spent at SLV Middle School and SLV High School. In addition, students have the choice of attending our SLVUSD Charter School and River View Continuation High School.

Mission

The mission of the San Lorenzo Valley Unified School District is to educate and graduate successful, compassionate individuals with an ability and desire to contribute proactively to the improvement of self and society through active involvement in an innovative educational system which respects, challenges, and engages their minds.

Vision

Our vision is to provide the richest educational experience available in a public school setting. Understanding that public education truly belongs to the local community:

- Where all are valued and recognized for their talents and contributions
- Where every person optimizes his or her potential
- Where members of the community embrace individual choices
- Where all grow and learn in a collaborative, nurturing environment and experience a zest for life long learning