Profile

We are a rural K-8 single school district located in the heart of the Great San Joaquin Valley. Our district serves the northern tip of Tulare County and encompasses approximately 22 square miles of California's agricultural heartland.

At Monson-Sultana School we seek to:

- Encourage positive attitudes and behavior through the programs and activities we provide.
- Act as a positive role model in the community we serve.
- Engage all students in an environment that esteems their individual accomplishments.
- Deliver instruction using state of the art content and delivery to improve student achievement.
- Supplement our core curriculum with instruction and participation in the arts, athletics, and technology.
- Graduate students who are well prepared for their continuing education and continuing role in their community
